

Café Chimera

Human Sphere; Bakunin Mothership; 6 months since the armistice with EI.

Here you are in the Nomads' Nation, a nation that shouldn't exist, as much a fashionable paradise for the media as a tax haven for all the Sphere's financial flows, and a paradise devoid of any ethical standards for the scientists who roam the corridors of the Black Laboratories where terrible experiments are conducted, a place where the corporations and criminal empires of the Submondo rule like masters.

In a Sphere where all life forms have been infected with Cubes containing nanomachines to keep them under ALEPH's panoptic control for the various governments, and in a nation where life is a permanent struggle against the cold void of space, where social and cultural conflicts can escalate violently, the moderators make sure that social peace and the corrupt laws of government are applied to the letter.

Here, brutality in all its forms is a daily reality, the quality of life for the poor, the powerless and the weak declining day by day, for many... it's too much pressure, so they lose themselves in their work, their communities or their hobbies, sometimes trying to escape to Vaudeville...

But for some of them, comfort will be found at the bottom of a cup...

In a small café, in a lost passageway of the Ultraviolet Quarter, right next to the slums, you can find Café CH-1-M3-R4, but it's painful to say so everyone calls it Chimera, a little oasis in the midst of constant oppression, where spirits can come to warm their lost souls...

Welcome to CH-1-M3-R4! Here, in Bakunin's futuristic café, we serve the finest neo-Cappuccino with modified organic waitresses who are as cynical as they are disillusioned, seeing the most "varied" elements of society pass by to swap stories, and empty cups!!!!

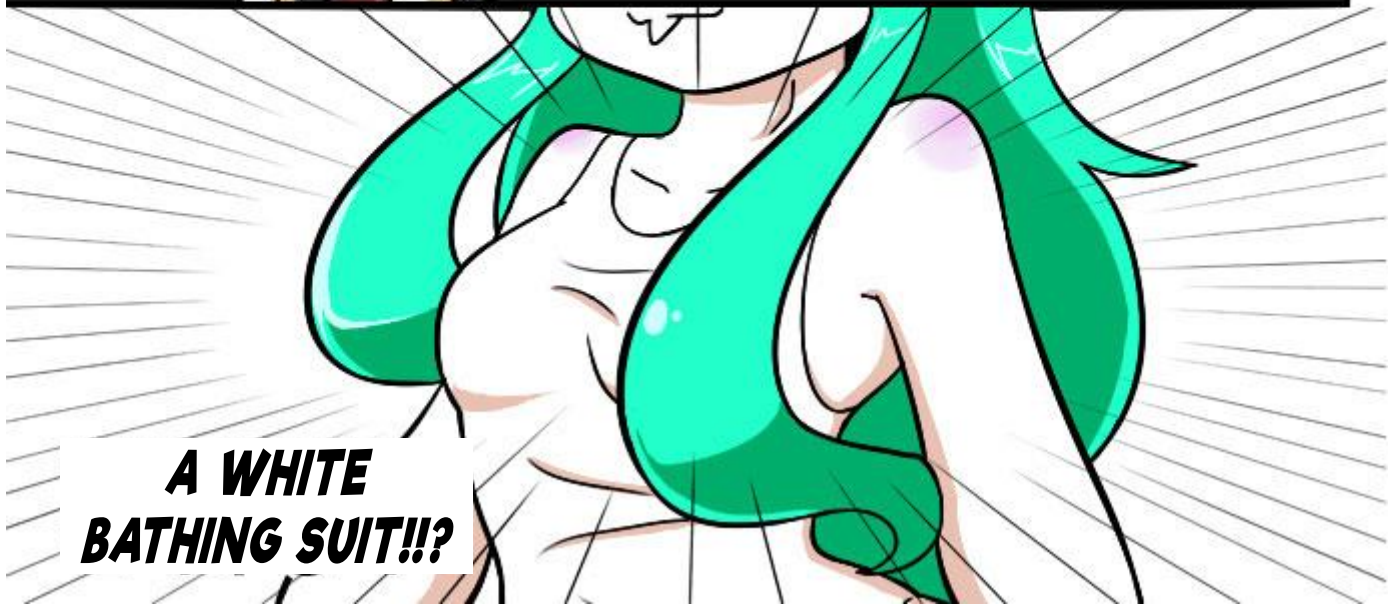

Haaa... it's so peaceful.

Hey geeky squirrel!

All in one color is the new fashion at Vaudeville, so I thought I'd try to match the color of my fur to the color of my clothes, which I did - no problem!

Given the neighborhood, it's true that it was THE problem...

TAP!

Oh, Charlotte's even more salivating today, don't you think?

AHOUUUUU

That's it, shut up wolves and get back to your 3 piggies.

It's been a long time since you looked like a pretty rabbit.

You even look like a woman!

Ha Alice, by the way we got the boss to make it the work outfit and you even have your own version!! ^^

It's good that you like it... But...
But... If you look at my body or my silhouette... I'm not sure it suits me...

A GLANCE

SIGH
